

THE ARGVMENT OF THE BOOKE OF NEHEMIAS.

This booke beareth Title both of the author Nehemias, who writ it, and of the fecond booke of Efdras, who in the former writ the hiftorie of the Ifraelites after theyr relaxation from captiuitie, to the building againe of the Temple, with other thinges done the fame time. VVhereunto Nehemias ioyneth thinges fucceding, especially the new erection of walles and towers about the citie of Ierufalem. And it may be diuided into three partes. In the two firft chapters, he sheweth his compafsion of his countries mifserie: and his cōming to affift them. In the tenne folowing, he reciteth the good effectes in repayring, and ftrengthening the citie with walles and people. In the laft chapter, the correction of errors & euil maners, which he found amongft them.

Duble title of this booke.

The cōtentes.

Diuided into three partes.

S. Ierom. Epift.
ad Paulin.